Re: Nomination of Richard J. Pennington to Chief of Police

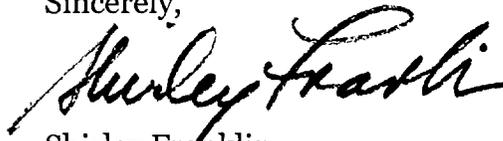

Dear Council President Woolard and Members of Council:

Pursuant to Section 3-305 (a) of the City Charter, it is with great pleasure that I present to you for confirmation, Richard J. Pennington as my choice for appointment to the position of Chief of Police.

As you are aware, it was my goal to seek out and to find the best available person for this position through a nationwide search. Once identified, all of the candidates were interviewed and their backgrounds fully scrutinized. Richard Pennington's experience, background, integrity and vision ultimately convinced me that he is indeed the person best suited and qualified to fill this very essential role in my administration. I am confident that you will concur in my assessment as you go through the confirmation process.

Concurrently, with confirmation, I am requesting Council approval of the personnel paper authorizing the salary negotiated with Mr. Pennington along with an employment agreement memorializing the terms of his service as Police Chief.

Sincerely,

Shirley Franklin
